TERMS OF DAILY DEMOCRAT TO THE One Month 50 No subscriptions taken for less than one month.

The Daily Democrat goes to the country through the early morning mails, and by railroad and express in all direc tions. It costs fifty cents per month or five dollars per year, sent to any address, by mail or otherwise.

The Disunionists, after a failure of all attempts to get Kentucky into this rebellion and war, have at last become the friends of peace. The Courier is for peace! Breckinridge, Clay & Co. are to address a grand pienie at Harrodsburg. Blessed are the peace-makers! This is announced in the organ; but in another column, the correspondent from the Confederate army says of Kentucky: "God grant that she may eventually unite with her natural allies, though it be necessary before such a Union that she pass through a baptism of fire and blood!" He talks, too, of having Washington right speedily. This is the spirit of those whose particular sympathizers invite the people of Kentucky to get up great peace demonstrations.

It would, no doubt, gratify them immensely, if they could disband the army of the United States, and enthrone King Cot ton with his military despotism in Kentucky. It is well known that the United States Government wanted peace. It submitted, month after month, to be robbed, insulted and defied, whilst the revolutionists sought war with ceaseless vigilance. They even found it difficult to get up a fight. They are now defiant and exacting. Noth ing but a dissolution of the Union will satisfy them. They will spend the last dollar or the last man before they will take less; and we are to submit to this impudent dictation, and give up a country that we may be ruled by Jeff. Davis, Howell Cobb. W. L. Yancey, and Floyd, the financier. We are to sacrifice the Government of Washing ton, Adams, Jefferson and Madison, to feed the ambition of a few second-rate politi cians. Peace! peace! That means submis sion to the conspirators who have brought all this trouble on the country.

It is true that peace is desirable. All men would rejoice to see peace and the pro gress of negotiation. Let the Confederates say they want peace; let them who began this bloody crusade, and who have, from first to last, breathed only slaughter and defiance, show a disposition for peace. Go to Nashville and preach peace; go to Charleston and preach peace; Kentucky is a State of the Union, desires above all things to see the Union restored, and now that the legions of armies are threatening the gates of the capital, we get up the cry of peace! It can mean only thesurrender and of these States, and bow the knee to King

This is the effect, if, indeed, it have any effect; and the men now so zealous for peace are violent Secessionists who have labored diligently to get Kentucky to resist the authority of the Federal Government and join the rebellien.

Foiled in all attempts up to this time, the outery for peace is raised in hopes of winning support in that way. Let them but get their way, and then you will see how much they are for peace; they will take Kentucky through the "BAPTISM IN BLOOD," in order to get her into the Southern Confederacy. They are for such peace as Virginia has to-day, and such peace as Missouri is in the happy enjoyment of They want a baptism of blood. That is their peace. Let no one be deluded by this trick; it is all a snare. Show us the way to peace and Union, to any honorable settlement, and then we will listen to it. But the empty ery for peace, that means only a this subject are like all their other profesbaptism of blood, that would mislead Kentucky to the fount and plunge her into it, we abhor. The Union men of Kentucky have the other day, eleven thousand dollars, that tried every means for peace, and they will Adams & Co.'s Express were bringing to not cease to try; but they will not sacrifice the Union to peace, nor sacrifice Kentucky nine thousand dollars, belonging to a firm to King Cotton, nor plunge into a baptism in this city, were seized in like manner, a of blood under the cry for peace. Nor will Kentucky, whilst a State of the Union, and execrating this wanton and bloody resist. ance to the Union, stultify and degrade herself by exherting the Government to an account of a wagon slipping out of humiliate itself before its defiant and exultant enemies, under the pretense of a at that place, laden with a cannon, and, justice. desire for peace. The Confederates can perhaps, other arms. Can it be true that a have peace, if they desire it. They broke the peace up to this day; facts show that this war, on the part of the Federal Govornment, has been a war of defense. These friends of peace flatter themselves that the Democracy of the North will aid them. It is all a delusion. The Democracy of the North abhor Black Republicanism and all its phases. They are for granting the South all her rights; but they are as much opposed to a dissolution of the Union as they are to Republicanism. The declaration of the New York Democracy will be the motto patriots couldn't bear the sight of United Missouri volunteers, seeing the position of everywhere-"We are opposed to war, and even peace, upon the basis of a separation." Let this be the motto of the Union Democ

Why, we are told, you don't expect to restore the Union by the sword; but we intend the Cottonocracy to find out that dignity. they can't divide it by the sword. Let them seek that object by peaceable means. If it be a fact that it is a cherished object with the people; if it appear that their connection with the Federal Government be odious, the good sense and feeling of the country would officer, not impose hated bonds upon them; but they can't subjugate the rest of the Union to their despotic purpose. They can't rob all the other States of their rights by the sword.

The most curious transition we have seen is the Secession party passing into a peace party. When it was proposed in the Legislature, by Union men, that Kentucky should avoid any conflict, a majority of the Secessionists voted against it-twenty-eix whistle for their property and their profit. out of little over forty-sad then they strove in mass to convert what is called neutrality into resistance to the Federal Government. NEW YORK, August 16 .- J. A. They charged that he partook of lager beer with a number of volunteers, and then tried to induce them to desert their companies. He abused the Government outrageously, contending that the Southern Confederacy ought to be recognized, and finally became so bold in his assertions as to enrage the Germans, and they at once arrested him.

ARTILLERY .- We are glad to learn that an artillery company is being raised in our city to be attached to the Home Guard of this city. This is very necessary and very important. We heartily commend any such action. To make an efficient corps for the defense of our city it is absolutely necessary to have full regiments, including all of the different arms of the service. There will be a meeting early next week to act upon the matter, of which further notice will be

In noticing the bust of Henry Clay yesterday, we said it was the first effort of Mr. A. P. Henry. We were mistaken. It is Mr. H.'s second effort. His first was an Indian girl, now in the possession of Mrs. Roger Hanson, of Lexington. The talent evinced by Mr. Henry is of the very highest order, and should be cultivated. He should by all means visit Italy.

The twelve twelve pounder brass cannon said to have been spiked at Fort Kearney by Lieutenant Colonel C. H. Tyler, who is now a prisoner in Newport Barracks, have been re-drilled and taken to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, in good order.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?-The arms belong ing to the Citizen Guards, a company o the State Guard, were yesterday removed from the Court-house, their place of depository, to the warehouse of a prominent leader of the secession party in our city.

The Tennesseeans won't allow Kentucky whisky to go to their State. They or notes due by the city, which may fall the toronth some at Springfield, and sent it due before the 10th day of March next, stopped some at Springfield, and sent it back, swearing that their liquor is as good as Kentucky could make. It's not so. The bad whisky of the Southern Confederacy is 1861, showing receipts for stalls to be one of the causes of the troubles.

It has been figured up that the building of seven gun boats at St. Louis by Captain Eads will employ about four thousand mechanics, and give support to at least twenty-five thousand persons. The boats will cost the Government $700,000, independent of their armaments.

One of the conductors on the Jeff. ersonville Railroad, on Thursday, while passing through a bridge near Vienna, was struck by a beam, and we learn his life is dispaired of. We did not learn the name of the unfortunate man.

There appears to be very little doubt now that the Government has ordered Major General Wool to proceed to Fortress Monree and supersede General Butler in command of that post.

Miss Caddie Barker, a very in teresting young lady of Bullitt county, was thrown from a horse yesterday, and, we learn, very seriously injured.

BRIDGE ON FIRE-CONSIDERABLE ALARM CREATED. - The cars of the Kentucky Central Railroad, says the Cincinnati Enquirer of yesterday, which left at half-past six o'clock yesterday morning, on reaching the bridge about ten miles beyond Falmouth, were compelled to stop in consequence of the bridge having been fired. About five o'clock in the morning it was discovered to be on fire by some of the inhabitants living close by, who declare that on arriving at the spot they saw some ends of fence rails so arranged as to induce the belief that it had THE PEOPLE OF LOUISVILLE, WITHOUT REFER been set on fire by some maliciously dis. posed persons. Some five or six feet of the imbers upon which the rails are laid were partially consumed, and but for the timely application of a few buckets of water by those who first discovered the flames the whole fabric would doubtless have been destroyed. The damage done will be repaired so that the cars will resume their trips again to-morrow. The statement of the Mechanics' Bank, in Georgia, consists of $3,207,358 85, of which they have, in their vaults, only $11,534 56. There are $100,000 in Confederate bonds; loan to the Confederate States, $75,000; to the State of Georgia, $50,000, and a general collection of straw securities of the like character. What would any business man think of banking done in that way? And yet Georgia is the most prosperous of all the Southern States. Col. Fletcher Webster was recently ordered to strike his tents and march. The baggage wagons were loaded, when he found the baggage occupied so much room that he took his own trunk from the cart, and ordered all the officers' baggage to be removed to give place to stores and ammunition. "The men must be well fed," he remarked, "no matter what happens." The boys appreciate his care for them.

Ayer's Ague Cure INTERMITTENT FEVER OR FEVER AND AGUE, JEFFERSONVILLE, IND.

WE ARE ENABLED HERE TO OFFER THE COM-MEARLE STABLES while it cures the above complaints with certainty, said perfectly harmless in any quantity. Such a success is to various the said that where these affecting before the prevail. This "Cure," expels the said to be successed and proven the said to be successed in the said to said the said to be successed in the said to be s from the system, and prevents the development of the alrease, it taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of everybod; and in billous districts, where Fever and Ague prevalls, everybody should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of one of the protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all —the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is that it contains no quintine or mineral; consequently, it produces no quintism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as it they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are—
Neuralela, Rheumanism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toutache, Earache, Catarrh, As hma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spiech, Hysterics,
Pain in the Rowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach,
All of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cura" exples the poison from the blood, and, consequently, cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons traveling or tempora "ily residing in the malarions districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quartity to tipen into disease. Hence it is correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat for the following intelligence: Mr. Ingraham, a Union clerk in a Secesion store in Springfield, reached here this morning. He reports that four regiments of rebel cavairy, under General Rains, entered Springfield Sunday noon, and hoisted a Secession flag on the courthouse, amidst the noisy demonstrations of the troops and a few resident sympathizers. Our wounded soldiers in the hospital had not been molested, and it was assumed that only the Home Guards would be the sub jects of resentment. The rebels purchased everything in the stores, paying any price demanded in Confederate scrip. They were particularly anxious to get shoes, some of their regiments being entirely barefooted. Captain Indes, one of General Sigel's skirmishers, who was wounded in the battle, reports that Sigel's attack on the rear of the rebel camp was a complete surprise to them; that they were driven back towards Lyon's command, in front, with great slaughter, their dead lying in EPECIAL AND POSITIVE CASH SALE OF ONE heaps on the field, and that for the first HUNDRED AND FIFTY CASES AND CARTOONS half hour Gen. The shots were too far ahead to inflict damage, and this is all of the story.

Money may bring a thing into temporary notoriety, but merit alone can make it retain the post of acceptance. This has been strikingly verified in the case of WRIGHT'S REJU-VENATING ELIXIR. It has passed through the ordeal, and established itself in every region where introduced, solely from its intrinsic merit; it pretends to nothing but what it can and does perform as a tonic, alterative, diuretic, restorative and healthgiving cordial; for, though medicinal in effect, it is not so in taste. We say try it!
